ENTER THE METAL WORLD

It's not the Sun in the sky
That shines on me when I cry
It's not the one we all can see
The one that lives in me

I'm afraid of never finding her on time
Gonna pray I'll never die
The nightmare has begun

Enter the Metal World of Doom
Into the hands of the machines
Enter the Metal World of Doom
Beware! The killer jaws of steel

It's not the Black Moon that heard my lonely calls
And turned my wish into a curse
Someone I love lies underground
I hear the voice inside "Build me alive!"

PRE-CHORUS

CHORUS

I see a monster in her eyes
The monster claims I'm her kind
Obsessed with immortality
Fight an unseen enemy

CHORUS

ARMAGEDDON CLAN

Don't you know I'm not insane I have foreseen the Judgement Day
Machines will annihilate
Lock me up or throw me to the wolves the truth remains unchanged
Machines have given the date

Extermination has begun
The Sentinel is on the run
To warn the Armageddon Clan
Before we're all gonna die

I'm running for my life
I'm running out of time
Oh, they will never get me alive
We're all gonna die
I'm running for my life
I'm running out of time
Oh, they will never get me alive

As the words of warning echoed on, the world did not respond
Machines came down from the sky
Human corpses headless torsos hang impaled and burn to dust
Machines slayed many of us

CHORUS

A computer-generated world experiments on slaves
Machines will give them no rest
I will not forsake this land and fly a million miles away
Machines keep feeding the flame

And when the bell will toll no more
We can't return we can't go on
We are the Armageddon Clan
Tonight we're all gonna die

CHORUS

Oh, they will never get me alive!

THE BAND OF THE HAWK

We are a mercenary band
Led by Griffith the White Hawk
United we stand under our flag
Into battle we bring the storm

We are the

Death of the battlefield - We will return
Death of the battlefield - Victorious
Death of the battlefield - We are the Band of the Hawk

Our enemies now fall we're marching tall
Over their bodies and bones
No matter how strong those castles of stone are
We shall conquer them all

We are the

Death of the battlefield - We will return
Death of the battlefield - Victorious
Death of the battlefield - We are the Band of the Hawk

We are the

Death of the battlefield - Death of the battlefield
Death of the battlefield - Death of the battlefield
Death of the battlefield - Yes, we are the Band of the Hawk

The nobles are raging
Soon they'll be fading
Locked up and burning away
Death by betrayal
From one of their own
And the White Hawk disappears into the night
The White Hawk disappears into the night
The White Hawk disappears into the night

I, I shall die with the Hawks by my side
I will not betray I'll stay to the end - To the end!

We are the

Death of the battlefield - We will return
Death of the battlefield - Victorious
Death of the battlefield - We are the Band of the Hawk

We are the

Death of the battlefield - Death of the battlefield
Death of the battlefield - Death of the battlefield
Death of the battlefield - We are the Band of the Hawk
We are the Band of the Hawk
We are the Band of the Hawk
Yes, we are the Band of the Hawk

JUSTICE AND METAL

He's a bad mothafucker he's a metal man
Got a heart of steel he's not afraid to die

Tonight all warriors
Scream! Justice and metal, justice and metal!
Crusade goes on and on
Scream! Justice and metal, justice and metal!

No retreat no surrender never compromise
Metal Gods burn up you gonna feel the heat

CHORUS

Tonight all warriors
Scream! Justice and metal, justice and metal!
Crusade goes on and on Scream!
Justice and metal - Yeah
Justice and metal - Yeah
Give justice and metal - Yeah

STEEL

No resistance from muscle, blood and bone
No co-existence between men and machines

We say

Shake the world with metal
Shake the world with steel
Shake the world with Heavy Metal grinding the meat
Shake the world with metal
Shake the world with steel
Shake the world with Heavy Metal Gods

True believers facing their doom
Puny humans are fed to the device

We say

DIE-HARD WARRIOR

Die-hard warrior the undefeated
Born with a heart of a lion - Born to fight
Mma-mma my adversaries shall fall before me
I will not bend I will not break

'Cause I am
Die-hard - No one beats me
'Cause I am
Die-hard - Die-hard

Time after time they think they got me
Again and again I keep getting up
My fists are made of steel my heart is made of gold
I will not bend I will not break

CHORUS

'Cause I am
Die-hard - I'm the best, no one beats me
'Cause I am
Die-hard - Die-hard

CYBERSPACE

I type the secret code again
And plunge into another realm
Welcome to cyberspace my friend
You have got access everywhere

Yeah! I wanna welcome you to Hell
Reality is just a shell
You live a dark life on the edge
I can exceed all boundaries
And realize my filthy dreams
I will return for more and more

I am a cyber warrior
I'm able to take any form I want
Into electric masquerade
Identity remains untraced

CHORUS

I will return 3x
To cyberspace
Cyberspace 3x

SHOW ME HOW TO DIE

Black sky
No light
Satan is here tonight
War cries
Men die
The battle starts

No fear
No lies
A better world awaits
Hell yeah
I'm done
No coming back

My journey has just begun

My journey has just begun

Show me how to die
Show me how to die
Life is not enough
I need to die

CHORUS

My journey has just begun

CHORUS

SAVAGE AND SAINT

Painless words don't mean a thing
Stainless world is a gift of lie
King of kings is a fallen man
No way out of here alive

Boy and girl never meet again
Life or death - Which one hurts more?
Chained outside cold every night
Reaching out for a helping hand

I don't believe my faith belongs to no one
They will deceive me if only they will get a chance
Why do I hide from her? She's blinded by her God of Love
The boy and the girl savage and saint
The end of the line fortune or fate

Somewhere else before the end
Man and God lost on the way
End of time - Who will survive?
Reaching out for a single one

CHORUS

The boy and the girl savage and saint

IRON HAND

On the eve of destruction
Ferocious Hell-Demons
Are bound to be pulverized by the Hand

Iron Hand

In the dawn of a new life
Some die being born dead
And the River of Blood flows from the Hand

Iron Hand

The one who can face death
Must know what true life's like
It's living by the sword of truth
Look out!
There's a man who can change fate
He's called the Black Swordsman
He'll fight 'til the kingdom falls by the Hand

Iron Hand

VICTORY

Welcome the action
Welcome the pain
Oh, wicked ways
Slitting throats open
Bloody swords and knives
Oh, our way of life

Take us for a ride into the sky
We never leave our brothers dying
Griffith, lead us to the fight!
Facing the most gruesome enemy
On every single battlefield
We give'em death and take their gold

Extremely skillful
Extremely strong
Oh, the slayer of a hundred men
Raid leader Guts
Too damn tough
Oh, for anyone to handle

The sign of the Hawk rises on the hill - They kill!
The heart of the damned - Blood runs down the hills - Victory!

What's going on in your mind
Just the moment before you strike?
What do you feel when you take a life?
Do you ever cry?

Oh, it's time to burn!

CHORUS

Victory!

BONUS TRACK: STAY BLACK

Black heart, black soul
Bow to the dark lord
Live in the shadows
Let them embrace you

Whenever life gets hard - Stay black

Deep scars, drained blood
Can you endure the pain?
Stay in the shadows
Let them embrace you

Whenever life gets hard - Stay black

Watch out! I live in the shadows
Beware of the man in the dark

1st VERSE

Whenever life gets hard - Stay black

Whenever life feels bad
Whenever life feels damned
Whenever life gets hard - Stay black
